

FALLBROOK QUILT GUILD

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

I would like to once again thank all of those who served as Board members and committee chair for the 2013 – 2014 year, and welcome back those who chose to brave the challenges by doing it again.

As a reminder, we will be having all of our Executive Board Meetings on the Friday following our general meeting at 10:00 am. Jan and Diane have graciously allowed us to use their shop to have our meetings. This is an open meeting – everyone is welcome to attend.

We need some members or a friendship group to volunteer to bring snacks to the July 10, 2014 meeting, otherwise we could all starve. No one likes a grumpy, hungry quilter.

We will be having the raffle drawing for the Opportunity Quilt at the August 7, 2014 meeting so buy tickets before its too late.

Hope to see you all at the upcoming meeting.

Happy Quilting
Sharon Baker

SPEAKERS AND WORKSHOPS

As our new quilt-year begins I hope you are as excited as I am about the lineup of speakers and workshop that are full of fun. Starting with July, we have Desiree Habicht from Riverside, whose program is called Reinventing the Wheel. Desiree has quite the story to tell regarding her journey through fine art, mural work, interior decorating, and art quilts. She has won several awards for not only her fabulous quilts, but her fine art as well. Desiree's workshop is called Stone Age Art Quilts - Still Life. She will be teaching an intriguing technique that involves painting, fusing and slicing, amongst others. If you miss this workshop you will be slapping your head and crying, "Why didn't I take that class!?"

I will also be taking sign-ups this month for Peggy Martin's August Feathered Star workshop. Come by and see the samples.

Last but not least, I am going to start a UFO project and will explain more at the July meeting. In the meantime, start thinking about how many UFOs you have, and which ones you really want to finish!

ANN Turley

BLOCK OF THE MONTH

It's hard to believe that this year of working with you on Block of the Month is at an end. I did enjoy the challenge of finding patterns and making the block samples, but the best part was getting to know so many of you better! Also, my thanks go to Anne Ottemann and the other members of Tuesday Girls for their support.

At the June guild meeting, we decided to combine the last two blocks of the month with this month's jar block. Depending on the response, we will have one, two, or three raffles! This is your chance to win BIG by making one of the three blocks—the tulip, the hexagon, or jar block . . . or more than one of any or all of them!

If you want to make any of these blocks, and didn't pick up the instructions, they can be found on our guild's website, www.fallbrookquiltguild.com.

Thanks to you all!
Sue B.

HOSPITALITY

Hi! I'm Shirley Fleming, your Hospitality Chair for the new guild year. I certainly hope I am able to follow the wonderful example set by Tina Rainey and Betsy Shirkey. They provided such fantastic spreads for us during 2013-2014, and went that "extra mile" to make sure guild members were able to enjoy bountiful tables of refreshments throughout the year. Please be sure to express your appreciation for their fine accomplishment whenever you see them.

As yet, I do not have a hospitality co-chair and I am asking one of you to step forward to assist me. I will be extremely grateful for any and all help. If committing to the entire year is not feasible, please consider assisting for one month. This will be especially important for our Christmas and June meetings. You can contact me at 760-310-7964 or peacerose54@hotmail.com.

Thanks so much,
Shirley Fleming

A permit for this raffle date has been issued. To date 2,900 tickets have been turned in. The decision was made to END sale of raffle tickets for the "Flowers of the Night" quilt despite its relatively short sales window. Any outstanding raffle tickets should be given to Sandy Scott. Motion and unanimous vote to cancel the scheduled showing of the 2012-2013 quilt at the El Camino Quilt Guild meeting on July 10, 2014.
