

FALLBROOK QUILT GUILD

Dear Summer Quilters,

With the month of June upon us, we are seeing our guild garden bloom with an abundance of new transplants amidst our membership perennials. Each of you fabulous fabric-loving flowers brings your own special sparkle to the garden. Some have an exotic flair like orchids that dazzling us with your colors and imaginations, while others of you are content to provide a trustworthy backdrop to the garden like roses, jasmine, or honeysuckle. And, some are happy to fill in whenever and wherever necessary such as lobelia, alyssum or geraniums. No matter what your status in our guild garden — sun loving or shade dweller, or a little of both — each of you contribute to the wonderful bouquet known as the Fallbrook Quilt Guild.

May your summer be blessed with an abundance of fun, laughter, and love.

Hugs to all of you!

Shirley Fleming

WAYS AND MEANS

And the winner of the Words to Live By Goes to...

We're saving the best for last, so you'll have to come to our June 2nd Guild Potluck to find out! We'll be drawing the name of the very lucky winner at the close of the evening's events. This is an amazing quilt that has earned our guild almost $5000 through the dedicated efforts of the ABCs who chauffeured, chaperoned, and exhibited this exceedingly fine example of work-womanship throughout San Diego County, Palm Springs, Ontario, and beyond. They sold thousands of tickets, created excellent PR, and presented themselves as outstanding examples of the membership of Fallbrook Quilt Guild. We owe a million thanks to Susie Alderson, Sharon Baker, and Ways & Means Chair Jan Conklin, plus so many of our membership to volunteered to sell tickets at events such as Road to California in Ontario, Oasis in Palm Springs, and the San Diego Quilt Show. Thank you each and every one of you!

Anyone know if the guild owns a little number like the one above? If you have any info, please contact Jan Conklin. Just in case we don't own one, or if it has gone AWOL, does anyone have access to one of these that we could borrow for the night of June 2nd?

Last moments to buy more tickets for your chance to win!! Bring a check and some address labels!
