Greetings, Quilting Friends,

Happy Hallowe'en!

I hope you had a chance to view our scarecrow in The Jewelry Connections window. I'm looking forward to an exciting month of quilting activities. At our November meeting we'll be having a mini quilt show in which all are invited to participate with their favorite quilt. I know that I'm going to be inspired by all the amazing quilting our talented guild has created. We also will be having our first in-person workshop this year in November. Karen Johnston will demonstrate a collage wreath that can be created for multiple occasions.

The holiday season will be here before you know it. And in your holiday giving plans, don't forget that Fallbrook Quilt Guild is a 501c3 nonprofit organization that can accept donations.

With best regards,

Frannie Marr

FQG President

UNDER-COVER MINI MYSTERY QUILT SHOW

November 4 is going to bring us an exciting and surprising adventurous meeting. Please look through your own quilts and select your very favorite to share with the guild. There will be a theme, but surprise! It won't be revealed until Frannie calls us to order. One special quilt will be chosen by you and awarded an awesome gift. In addition to viewing the quilts, Betsy Shirkey will be auctioning off six stunning quilts (below), and Ann Harris will present a fabulous trunk show.

PLEASE write the title of your quilt on a piece of paper and pin it to one corner of your quilt. When you arrive, arrange your quilt on the provided chairs.

I hope to see lots of quilts and all of you!

Holiday Wreath Workshop

November 6 at 9:00 a.m.

Start the holiday season by making this fun, easy wall hanging or table topper. This is the time to get over your fear of fusibles and put them to good use. We'll select a palette of holiday motifs from our festive fabric, attach the fusible, cut away, and build a wreath. You'll end the day with a quilt top ready to turn into a wall hanging or table topper.

You'll need floral fabric to cut up, a dark background fabric, and fusible web. Most important, you need small, sharp scissors. Get the complete supply list when you sign up at our November meeting. Workshop fee $20.

If you have questions, contact Karen Johnston at karejohnston@gmail.com

Friendship Group

What is that? An opportunity for fun! Members form a group (up to 8–10 people recommended) and pick a contact person to organize your group. The parameters are limitless! Where, when, how often to meet is up to each group. And you get to pick your own “clever” name. The existing group names already used are: Sew 'n' Sews, Creative Needles, Sewing Sisters, Around the Block, Tuesday Girls, Easy Piecers, Fabriholics, and Serial Quilters.

Usually your group members rotate where your meeting will be. You can have your own “show and tell,” problem solve, just meet for lunch—your choices are limitless. Have fun while getting to know each other!

Hi, Quilting Friends,

I am serving as FQG Sunshine Chair this year.
To be most effective, I need your help.

Here's how: Frequently a member or someone in her immediate family has a reason to be contacted, usually health-related. I am available to make a call, visit, or send a card if you will let me know the details.

I prefer an email over phone or text, but please use the easiest means for you.

Thanks so much,

Ann Harris

A Heartfelt Note of Appreciation to Jan Chow Buscís

With all the calamitous changes that the world is experiencing now, we need to include the transition to retirement of a treasured member of our community! Following her marriage in June and the recent sale of her Quilter's Cottage business, Jan and her husband have made plans to enjoy the pleasures of retirement in the Phoenix area of Arizona. Jan has served the needs of quilters and sewists from near and far since acquiring "The Cottage" in 2005. The classes she offered increased our skills and promoted friendships among us. She also steered many new members to the Guild and, month after month, for many years, contributed high-quality items to our raffle tables, enabling us to add to the funds needed to run the Guild. Although Jan's departure will leave a hole (as large as the craters in Arizona) in the lives of all her Southern California quilting friends, we wish her enough happiness to fill the Grand Canyon!

Quilts of Love

39!

That's the number of baby quilts turned in between July and October this year. Those lovely creations were crafted by eighteen members.

Our goal for the year is 160; watch our pie chart get filled in over the next months.

The following eight members have met or exceeded the minimum request of two or more from each member: Sharon Boehm, Donna Carter (and friends), Denise Cohen, Ardis Duhachek, Marg Freda, Ursela Hohaus-Hawkins, Deb Raver, and Tricia Voight.

We are exploring other avenues for our charity quilts and presently will add a small number to Hope House, a local pregnancy resource center. If you know of any other charitable organization that could use them, let a committee member know (Deb Raver, Carol Wilson, Dixie Johns). We are so appreciative of your support.

Many thanks,
Dixie Johns

News from the Southern California Council of Quilt Guilds

SCCQG & Road2CA

Road to California
Quilters' Conference
& Showcase 2022

Special Exhibit by
SCCQG featuring "So
Cal Quilts"

Again, the organizers from ROAD have invited SCCQG to sponsor an exhibit displaying the works of quilters from the Southern California area for exhibition at ROAD, January 19–22, 2022. It's our time to shine. The details of how to enter will be posted on the SCCQG website and will be emailed to each guild via their Council Representative, Newsletter Editor, and President for distribution.

Please join us in presenting a representative exhibit of what Southern California quilters from the desert to the mountains to the sea have been creating (or finishing). All types of quilts will be welcomed so long as they fit the size requirement. I am hoping to get at least one quilt from each of the member guilds. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me via email at liv4quilts@aol.com

In addition to submitting quilts, I will also be calling on So Cal quilt guild members to help with the whole process, including hanging (before the show begins) and take-down (when the show ends). If you are willing and able to help with any of it, please let me know at your earliest convenience at liv4quilts@aol.com
