

FALLBROOK QUILT GUILD

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Quilting Sisters,

What a wonderful gift we received at our September guild meeting when Deb Raver showed a collection of her exquisite quilts. Not only is Deb a master quilter, she is a delightful storyteller, as well. She kept us enthralled with her anecdotes chronicling her journey as a quilting and needlework artist. Starting by showing her very first embroidery needlework at age five, Deb presented an amazing array of quilts featuring her wonderful sense of color, mastery of applique, and beautiful hand quilting. As follow-up to her presentation, Deb taught an applique workshop sharing her meticulous techniques. Our guild is so very fortunate to have a member who is as generous as she is gifted.

We're in the homestretch for our quilt show and there are still so many openings for volunteers to assist with the various quilt show committees. Please remember this is OUR SHOW, and it is all our responsibilities to step up to the plate to bring the show to fruition. Active member participation does not stop with just entering your quilt in the show. For instance, the quilts have to be hung for display, as well as taken down at the end of the show. As of the Board meeting on September 11th, the setup/takedown committee had only six volunteers. According to Sandy Scott, our show coordinator, Carol Carpenter needs at least 30 people! How else do you think your quilts are going to go up for display, and be taken down for return to you? At our October meeting, all of you will have another chance to sign up to help. Again, like our last meeting, there will be a table with all the committee signup clipboards just waiting for your signatures. Please sign up! There are volunteer opportunities for each and every member of our guild. If you are a veteran member of our guild, this is an opportunity to get to know other members. If you are a new member, there is no better way to get to know others, and make yourself known, than by just jumping in and volunteering for a committee. Please sign up! Remember: If not you, then who?

Our next Board meeting is October 9th at the Quilter's Cottage at 11:00 a.m. All members are invited, welcome to attend, and encouraged to bring their concerns/suggestions for discussion. Not only are our meetings informative, productive, and fun, but you have the perfect excuse to stay and shop afterward. Jan Chow and Diane Miller are so very generous in providing room for our meetings. Thank you Jan and Diane!

Wishing you all a fabulous fall quilting season of glorious color!

Shirley Fleming

PROGRAMS AND WORKSHOPS

So this heat is starting to get old! Fortunately, it has allowed me to spend some much needed time in my, much cooler, craft room. I have been quite productive too! I started and finished a new lap quilt and finished and created a pillow cover with the block from wonderful September workshop taught by Deb Raver. I also got inspired to begin to quilt the 3 other tops sitting on my table. Once those are done, maybe I can start something new soon. I have so many ideas thanks to all the great inspiration I get from all you talented ladies each month!

This month our guest speaker will be Jean Impey, she has titled her talk, "Finding Your Passion & Running with It!" She also will be teaching a great workshop on October 3, for her seasonally appropriately named "Spider Web" block – and there are still spaces available! Come and sign up!

If you are new to the guild, or if you haven't taken one of our workshops in a while, I just want to say that they are so much fun! Not only do you get to learn a new technique or try something new, but you get to spend the day with some wonderful people and have a great day sewing! As a newer guild member, I have really enjoyed meeting and getting to know some of these inspiring, talented ladies at these workshops and so will you!

Happy Quilting,

Dawn Johnson

Deb Raver and her class of appliquéers

We all want to know what is going on here!

Some people really don't like having their photos taken

And others love displaying their work front and center!

Advice from a Singer Sewing Machine Manual from 1949

Prepare yourself mentally for sewing. Think about what you are going to do. Never approach sewing with a sigh or lackadaisically. Good results are difficult when indifference dominates. Never try to sew with a sink full of dirty dishes or beds unmade.

When there are urgent housekeeping chores, do these first so that your mind is free to enjoy your sewing. When you sew, make yourself as attractive as possible. Put on a clean dress. Keep a little bag of French chalk near your sewing machine to dust your fingers at intervals. Have your hair in order, powder and lipstick put on. If you are constantly fearful that a visitor might drop in or your husband will come home, and you will not look neatly put together, you will not enjoy your sewing.

HOSPITALITY NEWS

Thanks to the Sewing Sisters for a fabulous feast for the September Guild meeting. The presentation was wonderful and the food scrumptious! Although we were advised to eat before the meeting, the food was so inviting and generous, it was worth a second trip to the tables. Thank you ladies for a job very well done!!

For October, our refreshments will be provided by several ladies. As a reminder, those who have signed up are Shirley Fleming, Janice Welch, Gigi Sartor, Diane Parker, Donna Johnson, Vikki Sanchez, Marj Freda, Patti Kass and Linda Wright. We appreciate your volunteering and willingness to share the bounty of your kitchen or favorite snack. Many hands make easy work and it more fun too! See you all on the 1st!

Does anyone even do one of these things??????
NO.

Do we still enjoy our sewing time anyway????
YOU BETCHA!

BLOCK OF THE MONTH

Cup and a Quarter

We had 3 Cup and a Quarters at the September meeting donated by Linda Musillami, Sue Colby and an anonymous donor. Thank you so much for your generous contribution.

The lucky winners were, Deb Raver, Barbara Vajda and Wynell Moore, congratulations!

Thanks to all of you for your support.

Vivian Borgstrom and Betsy Shirkey

Linda Flynn was last month's lucky winner of 20 classy black and white blocks. She promises that after her boutique hat is hung up, she'll turn her attention producing something to wow us not in living color, but black and white but maybe with a pop of who knows???

October's block is our hands down favorite. With no meeting in November, we geared up for Christmas in October. With loving hands, we have fussy cut the cardinal, a holiday favorite, to grace the center of each block. The block pictured is one of ten with red on the outside, and the other ten have the red and green switched. So drop by the block of the Month table and get a block with our fine feathered cardinal.

Your BOM team
Wendy, Roberta, and Dixie

Quilt Show Sign-Ups – All Help Needed!

The October meeting is the last chance to sign up for any of the committees. We'll be at the Quilt Show table with all the sheets, so be sure to stop by!

We still need 20 people for set-up/take-down, 8 for Admissions, 8 for Country Store, 12 for White Glove, 10 for Food Booth, and 8 for Boutique.

We also need someone to take over the White Glove/Demonstration committee, or at the very least, offer to help Ann Harris. Her husband is seriously ill and she needs help.

Connie Follstad is looking for someone to work with her for the Layout Committee, who is willing to take the committee on for the show in 2017. It's lots of fun figuring out where to put each quilt so it shows best.

Thanks to all who have already volunteered! We're going to have a terrific show!

Sandy Scott

Opportunity Quilt 2016

“Words to Live by”

Ways and Means

Submitted by Sharon Baker

The sale of opportunity quilt tickets is going very well. We are a third of the way to our goal. Kudos to those members picking up and PAYING for their tickets.

A special thank you to all of the volunteers during the San Diego Quilt show and those of you that filled in during the “crisis” thank you, thank you, thank you. Hugs and kisses to dedicated members Andy Hard, Pamela Frisbie, Dixie Johns, Sheryl Kaplan, Ursula Hawkins, Renee Toomey, Shirley Fleming, JoAnn Rego, Barbara Anderson, Irene Althaus, Lois Sprague, and of course ME!

Now for those of you who have not volunteered, this assignment is a piece of cake. Whether you do white glove or ticket sales.

WHITE GLOVE:

The first assignment I ever volunteered for was white glove. What an easy job. You just show people the back of the quilts and talk about the ones you may have read about. People hardly ever ask questions ... what if they do ... and you don't know the answer.... you say “sorry I don't know”. Doesn't get any easier than that.

TICKET SALES:

The Opportunity Quilt tickets sell themselves. You sit at the table, usually with another member. People will just come up and ask to buy tickets. It helps to smile. You take the money and log the ticket number. They fill out the stub and place them in the jar. It's just that easy. Bring some hand work when sales are slow. At the end of the day – A Ways and Means committee member will collect the money.

What a great way to get involved with the Guild. You meet lots of people and we all know how friendly

COUNTRY STORE UPDATE

At our November quilt show we will have an area called the Country Store. It will be filled with all of our donated fabric, kits, books, patterns etc. Now is the perfect time to clean out your quilt closet(s) , try not to get distracted, and decide what goodies you can live without!

Sylvia Williams and her team will have a pickup truck at the next meeting. It will be loaded up and taken to our wonderful temporary storage area the next morning. If you have an unusually large donation or want to donate later in the month, please contact Sylvia. You will be able to arrange delivery or a pickup with her.

What is the best thing about destashing and clearing out your “studio?”

- A. So nice and pretty
- B. Getting rid of pounds of pet hair (ah choo!)
- C. Finding that bundle and or pattern you bought 5 years ago that you totally forgot about!
- D. Clearing out lots of space for.....NEW FABRIC!!!!!!!
- E. All of the above (correct answer)

Sandy and Marie Sundsboe have been finalizing details and working through PayPal to get everything setup in order for us to take credit cards at the quilt show. Sandy will be setting up training sessions for how to use the credit card readers. Cheryl brought up question as to whether the credit card readers that will be used at the quilt show will be the new readers required as of Oct. 1, 2015 for taking credit cards with the chip technology. Marie will be contacting PayPal and make an inquiry to see if we have the correct readers. Discussion on who should be permanently in charge of credit card readers. Discussion on the possibility of using the credit card readers for selling opportunity tickets to help increase our ticket sales. Readers would have to be checked out and in for each use. Sandy said she will be responsible for all readers and checking them out as they are needed for an event. Diana Rash reported that we have 215 quilt entries.
